

CODE ENFORCEMENT OFFICER

Pershing County District Attorney's Office is accepting applications for a code enforcement officer/bailiff/investigative. Applicant should possess knowledge of law enforcement procedures and report writing. A successful applicant must be proficient in the correct use of English. Must have a valid drivers license and reliable transportation. A general understanding of planning and building codes, general office procedures, excellent organizational and record-keeping skills are a plus. Preference will be given to POST certified Category I officers. A successful candidate will pass a background check. This position is full time (40 hours a week). Salary DOE. Applications may be obtained at the District Attorney's Office, 400 Main Street, Lovelock, NV (775) 273-2613 and must be submitted by June 10, 2009 5:00 p.m. Pershing County is an Equal Opportunity Employer.